

Make this class work for your degree!

Do you know that UofT undergraduates may enroll in up to three programs of study?

This class qualifies you for the following programs of study:

- Slavic & East European Languages & Cultures Minor
- Slavic & East European Languages & Cultures Major
- Slavic & East European Languages & Cultures Specialist

Cannot commit to the study of a foreign language? No problem, this class also qualifies you for:

- Slavic & East European Literature in Translation Minor

See our program descriptions here:

<https://artsci.calendar.utoronto.ca/section/Slavic-and-East-European-Languages-and-Cultures#programs>

Students enrolled in these programs qualify for undergraduate scholarships:

<https://www.slavic.utoronto.ca/undergraduate/undergraduate-program-information/undergraduate-scholarships>

if they study any of these languages: Bosnian/Croatian/Serbian, Czech, Estonian, Finnish, Polish, Russian, Ukrainian.

Why bother?

Too many students graduate with identical diplomas. Stand out in the crowd!
We help you acquire unique scholarly and professional credentials.
We diversify your academic profile with valuable expertise and applied skills.
We broaden your intellectual horizons and academic versatility.
We widen your career opportunities.
We make you more competitive in graduate & professional program admissions.

Need help or advice?

Talk to our Associate Chair–Undergraduate, Prof. Taras Koznarsky taras.koznarsky@utoronto.ca

Enrollment in programs of study begins in March 3, 2025